Instructions in the case of Corporal Robinson of Regt. 1st Regt. A.

Linnville August 6. 1862

General.

Circumstances of such gross insult and outrage were yesterday perpetrated upon my family, during my absence from my home ~~on~~ ~~yesterday~~, by a member of the Provost Guard that I am induced to bring them to your attention that the facts may be engineered into and then be punished as the enormity of his conduct merits. I will try and state the circumstances as nearly as I can as related to me by my family. -

My son in law Mr Rogers was taken in the street by a Corporal Robinson of Capt. Dalys Co. Provost Guard, near my house and without the authority of any Superior Officer, put him in prison from which he was immediately released by Col. Smith. - During Mr Rogers' absence and when there was no one about my house but three ladies of my family this fellow returned to my house put his loaded musket to my wifes head, threatening to kill her at the same time using abusive, obscene language to her, and the other ladies, and in a brutal way put his filthy hands upon the person of my wife and sister in law. This act, was repeated not only once but several times during a space of nearly two hours. At one time when my daughter's father in law had fled the house to obtain some male protection, he returned jammed his musket against my front door (threatening to shoot thro' the window if it was opened) forced his way into the hall, made my wife take a seat opposite to him and held his loaded musket against her head threatening her for the space of upwards of a quarter of an hour, threatening every moment to shoot and all the while using abusive language. Col. Dent seemed anxious for his arrest at about 12 O'Clock P.M. and yet he was seen taking in a grocery nearly opposite my house after 4 O'Clock. He had a common soldier with him, who I must do justice to say tried to restrain the brute, but seemed to be afraid to disobey him. When I got to my house here some days I learned that Robinson was under arrest.

I have been a clerk in the U.S. Dep. since last September and am still well Cath. Harris for my character and loyalty I can safely refer you to any citizen, abnash, of Louisville.

Yours General
Very truly
Chas. J. Dent

Richd. Boyle.

I am informed that this man has acted in this way on several different occasions with other families in the City -

I may here mention that there are three or four doggeries in that part of the city at either of which the members of the Poor & Quaint may be seen congregated at almost any time of the day -
